How to Prepare for a Natural Hospital Birth - GrowingSlower Natural hospital birth is a topic near and dear to my heart. While home birth is the right choice for me and my family, the majority of women choose to give birth in the hospital, and they should be just as empowered to give birth naturally there as if they were in their own homes. weaving magic naturally: Basketry Materials from the Garden Weaving objects out of natural materials is a natural accompaniment to gardening, growing your own food and enjoying the natural world. What is better than gathering your own home grown vegetables in a basket you made from plants from your garden or neighbourhood?. Harvesting and Using Dandelion Roots - The Natural Detoxifier For medicinal use, most sources say fall harvest is best. This is because the levels of inulin (insoluble fiber) are higher and the fructose levels are lower. The freezing of winter converts the inulin to fructose, which makes spring roots more palatable for eating.

Stinging Nettle Identification: How To Identify, Harvest ... The best time to harvest nettles is the first few weeks after they come up in the spring, before they grow to be a foot tall. Wearing gloves, pick the first two or three pairs of leaves from the tops of plants. Carefully place nettles into a paper or plastic bag for transport.
